

2017 Kentucky Botanical Symposium

October 11-12 | Boone County Extension, Burlington, KY

Register: $40 (lunch provided) at www.knps.org

CEUs: 1) Pesticide: 2 general, 2 specific – categories 2,3,5,6,10,12,18
2) ISA: 12 CEUs

For more information email: meetings@knps.org

Day 1 – Oct 11

8:30am – Introduction

8:45am – TBD

Rare Plant Management

9:20am – Robert Hoffman, Roundstone Native Seed

Top 5s: Toughest Grasses, Forbs, and Weeds in KY Grassland Management

9:55am – Mark Jacobs, Boone County Conservation District

Case Study: Gunpowder Creek and Woolper Creek Stream and Wetland Projects. Function, Vegetation Re-establishment, and Invasive Threats

10:30am – Break and networking

10:50am – Kate Slankard, Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources

Forest Management for Priority Songbirds: Reliable Old Tricks and Lessons Learned from Recent Research

11:25am – Danna Baxley, The Nature Conservancy and

Zeb Weese, Kentucky State Nature Preserves Commission

Kentucky Collaborative Conservation Projects

12:00pm – Lunch (w/talk) – Jody Thompson, The Habitat Management Institute

KSU's Upcoming Conservation Training Program for Farmers

1:00pm – Field Trips

Boone County Environmental and Nature Center

- Robert Hoffman, Roundstone Native Seed

Pollinator Habitat: Management and Species Selection

- Rex McBride, Boone County Cooperative Extension

Extension Habitat Management and Pollinator Area Installation

Big Bone Lick State Historic Site

- Mark Jacobs, Boone County Conservation District

Stream Restoration: Function, Invasive Species, Ongoing Management

- Tara Littlefield, KY State Nature Preserves Commission/KHLCF

Running Buffalo Clover Habitat and Management

3:30pm – Audience Q&A

4:15pm – End and CEU sheets

Day 2 – Oct 12

8:30am – Intro and instruction

9:00am – Field Trips

Boone County Environmental and Nature Center

- Robert Hoffman, Roundstone Native Seed
Pollinator Habitat: Management and Species Selection
- Rex McBride, Boone County Cooperative Extension
Extension Habitat Management and Pollinator Area Installation

Big Bone Lick State Historic Site

- Mark Jacobs, Boone County Conservation District
Stream Restoration: Function, Invasive Species, Ongoing Management
- Tara Littlefield, KY State Nature Preserves Commission/KHLFCF
Running Buffalo Clover Habitat and Management

11:45am – Lunch (working) – TBD

12:45pm – Robert Hoffman, Roundstone Native Seed
Competition Control in Grassland Habitat: Recent Case Studies

1:20pm – Andrew Berry, Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest
Drones for Habitat Monitoring: Wildlife and Invasive Species

1:55pm – Jacob Bartley, Plum Hill Ecological Services
Botanical Inventory of Boone Cliffs and Dinsmore Woods Nature Preserves: Results and Management Needs

2:30pm – Break and networking

2:50pm – Joe Boggs, Extension Entomologist, The Ohio State University
Which Tree Pests Matter?

3:35pm – Audience Q&A

4:30pm – End and CEU sheets